A STAGE

A stage is brutal yet beautiful and suits every occasion from dinner parties to concerts and exhibitions. Let the imagination flow while taking advantage of this characteristic room featuring a large balcony, high ceiling and newly built functions.

A stage

A brutal venue of concrete brick and metal.

Set up pre-drinks on arrival at the balcony.

Different angles of daylight.

Build up your stage here - connected with a private room for artists/speakers, right behind.

PARTIES

Dinner parties for different occasions.

WORKSHOPS

We'll help you arrange your workshop with everything from technical solutions to breakouts in between.

CONCERTS

Dynamic space for concerts.

TALKS

Build up a stage with theater seating and let the talks begin.

A BACKSTAGE

A backstage is a L-shaped room with a simplistic ambience, well equipped for every occasion, for both private and public social functions. It features a bar and can be combined with A stage for larger events.

A backstage

A backstage with a private entrance.

Details from the 70's.

Choose between different furniture arrangements.

"Green-room" for artists/speakers in between sessions. Connected to A stage.

Use A backstage for various occasions such as parties, outlets, concerts and talks.

A COUSTIC

A coustic is a cool, concrete bunker where everything is possible.
Take advantage of the spectacular acoustics and brutal environment.

A coustic - the so called "bunker" gives you a squared and edgy yet simplistic venue.

Brutal spot for photoshoots.

It ain't called A coustic for nothing.
